THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

Paris Branch Newsletter - October 2013

Chairman's Report

You will find in this edition reference to a number of social events planned by Joan Hicks. Here also Mark Yates takes the opportunity to remind us that it is the time of year for us to pay our subscriptions - by the end of October at the latest please. His form enables us to make a contribution at the same time to the Branch Poppy Appeal Fund as well as to the Branch General Fund. The latter meets our operating expenses.

May I draw your attention in particular to our traditional Coffee Morning, when we are the guests of Lady Ricketts at the Ambassador's Residence on 29th October. By then our 2013 Poppy Appeal Campaign will be well advanced, and we look forward to assisting our new Poppy Appeal Organizer, Bridget Terrell, in every way possible. We are thrilled that she has accepted our invitation to take on this task, since she is uniquely qualified with her many contacts in the British Community.

Then of course we shall once more be organizing the Service of Remembrance on 11th November at the Cathédrale de Notre Dame de Paris at 3 p.m. We are pleased to announce that the Reverend Jim Cowie, Minister of the Scots Kirk, has agreed to act as our Branch Chaplain for this service, and we are deeply grateful to him for accepting our invitation.

Some of us attended the launch of Noreen Riols's new book at W.H. Smith last week. With her delicious sense of humour she has chosen the title "The Secret Ministry of Ag. and Fish" ! Sub-title: "My Life in Churchill's School for Spies". It tells her story of working in the Special Operations Executive during the Second World War. You will find many references to Branch member Bob Maloubier, the ace saboteur in S.O.E. I am presently reading this book and it fills one with enormous respect for the courage of those young men and women who volunteered for such a dangerous role, with the highest possible risk of torture and execution. You may obtain a copy of the book at W.H. Smith of course.

I should like to draw your attention to the brilliant initiative of Grahame Warby, Roger and Janet's son. He has undertaken to compile a collection of stories by Branch members of their service experience, principally but not exclusively in World War Two, as well as accounts from those of us who have memories as civilians from those days. He invites us to send our draft texts to him by e-mail at gwarby@cogencesearch.com. The deadline for your submissions is 31st October. The collection will be published and the net proceeds will go to RBL Paris Branch General Fund. So please do not hesitate to contact Grahame. Thank you so much Grahame for spotting this great fund-raising opportunity and for all the hard work that is going into it.

LETTER FROM OUR MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY

Owed to autumn?

Yet another October creeps up with all its icons: stubbled fields, leaves turning gold and red in the garden, the smell of bonfires. More specifically French: can we eat these mushrooms or are they toadstools? Is it still safe to go for a walk in the woods or do I look too much like a partridge to those after-lunch hunters carrying their loaded twelve-bores across the back of their necks.

And, unfortunately, the crop of taxes and bills which accompany the more pleasant aspects of the season.

You will thus be unsurprised by my reminder that the Royal British Legion's year starts on 1st October and that this is my annual appeal for your subscription (unless you are amongst those conscientious few who have already paid and whom I thank most heartily for their foresight).

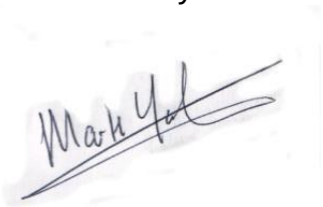

Once again I am happy to announce that, after some heart searching, your committee has decided, and this for the seventh year, not to increase subscriptions - although I would remind you that voluntary donations to the Poppy Appeal and the Admin Fund – mentioned on the subscription form herewith – are always welcome.

Should you lose the attached subscription form you can download another from our rblfrance.org website. On the same site you can also:

- download a membership application form should you find a potential member,
- find the latest Newsletter,
- find information about monthly lunches and upcoming events such as the Embassy Coffee Morning, November 11 at Notre Dame …
- put in a free ad.

You will find the subscription form, with the amounts due, on the next page but one. I should be grateful if you would let me have your cheque by 30th October.

Yours sincerely

Mark Yates

Le mois d'octobre nous arrive encore et déjà, avec ses images qui rapellent les scènes de Millet : des moissons, des bois flamboyants avec les couleurs d'automne. Les questions de la saison se posent: « puis-je manger ce champignon ou est-il vénéneux », « dois-je me promener dans les bois avec tous ces chasseurs qui, après un déjeuner bien arrosé se promènent, le fusil porté sur la nuque, le baril dans l'oreille du voisin. »

Et, avec tout cela, la pluie des impôts, des factures et des demandes diverses – auxquels je vais en ajouter un.

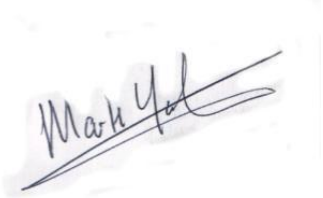

Effectivement l'année de la Royal British Legion commence le 1° octobre et voici, je vous rappelle que j'attends votre cotisation (à moins que vous soyez parmi ceux qui ont déjà réglé et que je remercie cordialement pour leur prévoyance)

Il m'est agréable, toutefois, de pouvoir vous signaler qu'après mûre réflexion, votre comité a décidé, et ceci pour la septième année de suite, de ne pas augmenter les cotisations – je me permets nonobstant de vous rappeler que les contributions au Poppy Appeal et à nos fonds administratifs - mentionnés sur le formulaire ci-joint - sont toujours les bienvenues.
Si vous perdez le formulaire de cotisation ci-joint, il est toujours possible de télécharger une copie à partir de notre site Web rblfrance.org. Sur le même site vous pouvez également:

- télécharger un formulaire de demande d'adhésion pour le cas où vous en auriez besoin,
- lire la dernière « Newsletter »,
- trouver des informations sur les déjeuners mensuels et les événements à venir, tels que le « coffee morning » à l'ambassade, la cérémonie du onze novembre à Notre-Dame ...
- publier gratuitement une annonce.

Vous trouverez le formulaire de cotisation sur la page suivante. Je vous serais reconnaissant si vous pouviez me faire parvenir votre chèque avant le 30 Octobre.

Cordialement
